More Voluntary Concessions to Thousands of Policyholders by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

A remarkable spirit of liberality toward its pollcyholders is again the striking feature of the periodical statement or report of the Metropolitan Life insurance company.

Broadly speaking, the inducements offered by responsible life insurance companies to insurable persons are of two kinds. One consists in a proposition to carry a definite amount of "straight" insurance at low cost: the other offers innumerable plans by which in return for excessive premium payments the person insured is to "participate" in the earnings of the company, receiving benefits that are not definitely stated in the policy itself.

Metropolitan Life sells The Metropolitan Life sells "straight" insurance only; that is, it promises to pay at death, or at the expiration of your policy, a fixed sumplainly written in the contract.

The business of the Metropolitan Life has increased tremendously year while its operating expenses.

Life has increased tremendously year by year, while its operating expenses, proportioned to the vast amount of insurance carried, grow steadily less. Ordinarily the resulting gains would be considered a legitimate award of enterprise under capable management, in which the policyholders have no interest; but this particular insurance company chooses to share its prosperity with them by paying bonuses and increasing benefits.

The report just issued makes a remarkable showing:

The company in ten years has reduced the ramo of expense to premium income on its business in all depart-income on its business in all departments to per cent. In the industrial department alone the reduction accomplished in the past five years amounts to 8 per cent—this last item representing a total of three and a half million dollars.

These great gains are being used to increase the benefits 10 per cent. on all policies in force since January 1, 1967.

As to policies dated previous to January 1, 1997, a bonus of 8 per cent. of the premiums is given for a year on all policies over five years old; and increased benefits are allowed on and increased one-miss are allowed on policies of long standing which become death claims.

To sum up these benefits—not promised to policyholders nor expected by them—it is shown that during the past sixteen years the concessions and bonuses in the industrial department alone are equivalent to a critical department. alone are equivalent to a gift outright of eighteen millions of dollars.

An added novelty was the picture named above, and introduced at the evening performance at the Breed theater yesterday, it being a pretty story of a young girl working in a shoe factory, who puts a note with her address into a pair of shoes she is packing. It falls into the hands of a grouchy old individual, who reports her to the superintendent, who heretofore had not met her. He is much smitten with her, and falls deeply in love with her, and falls deeply in love with her, and marries her. much to the chagrin of the old grouch. The pretty Scotch picture of The Shepherd's Daughter is as charming as is its story, while the excellent comedy is furnished by An Auto Maniac. I Have Lost Topsy, Mr. Pallet Goes Landscaping, and the screaming biograph hit, entitled One Busy Haur.

Madame Morelle's high class song, Ah, Bright-winged Birds, continues to win, the hearty approval of the patrons, and last evening she sang the delightful little Indian song, Wildflower, and Mr. Delaney gave in his son, Addah, Come in Out of the Rain, Barney McShane, the very latest novelty in the dialect song line, winning the wall merited applause that he received.

elty in the dialect song line, winning the well merited applause that he received.

With the unequalled facilities for keeping cool, and the additional electric fans, this well ventilated theater is one of the coolest spots in town.

It is said that Mrs. Taft is frowning upon the practice.
The innovation began with the diplomatic set, and was encouraged by Mrs. Perry Belmont and Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt and other New York women who spend part of each seasion in Washington.
Then Mrs. John R. McLean conceived the idea of Sunday breakfasts at Friendship, her place, ten miles from the city, and society suddenly found it had practically resigned its Sunday to social duties as exacting as those

Mrs. Truman H. Nswherry, wife of the secretary of the navy, is one of the leaders in the fight, and she has a strong ally in Mrs. James Bryce, wife of the British ambassador.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY.

A Caution to Snake Raisers. Here's a hint to those who plan to go into the industry of saising rattle-snakes either for their eggs or for their plumage. If you must feed them with live mice, take the precaution to first extract the teeth of the mice. The first extract the teeth of the mice. The snakes may be smoking, or opening their mail, and be too busy to attend to lunch at first. Meanwhile the mice, taving nothing else to do might gnaw through the confines of the box, and wander out for a walk. In that case the snakes would have to go out through the hole in quest of them, to the great annoyance of the snakes and the unnecessary disturbance of the neighbors.—New Haven Register.

Hark! From Atlantic shores
To where Pacific roars
In casseless both:
From never-melting shows
To where the orange grows
And Illies and the rose
Forever bloom

Is heard the trampling hum
Of thronging peoples, come
To bide with thee;
Thy boundless plains to till,
Draw wealth from every hill.
And myriad cities fill
With industry.

All! All! Thy children true; Whatever climes they knew For Fatherlands To tree their Mother now, In loyal love ther bow. And pledge with Jeyous vow Their hearts and hands.

Thus Nature moves apace Building a mighty rane But just begun; To form her latest horn The varied brains and brawn From all the nations drawn She blends in one.

Oh Father of all good!
Grant that with mingling block
And blending scot.
Perfecting, Nature's art
Each nation may impart
Its noblest traits of heart
To crown the whole!

The love of God and truth;
Valor, with gentle ruth
Ever combined,
comor without a flaw;
Justice, and reverent awe
For Order throned on Law
In deepest mind: Bring in an Age of Gold.
